January 19
(1985) - PG - 161 min

Out of Africa

Love and adventure combine in this autobiographical story of a Danish woman’s life managing a coffee plantation in early 20th Century Africa. Winner of 7 Oscars.

February 9
(1987) - G - 102 min

Babette’s Feast

A French refugee working in Denmark, surprises the town with her skills as a chef.

March 2
(2001) - PG-13 - 97 min

Wit

An English professor diagnosed with a devastating illness finds that the fine line between life and death can only be walked with wit.

March 30
(1954) - Not Rated - 115 min

La Strada

“The Oscar-winning LA STRADA is the perfect place from which to begin an exploration of Fellini’s expertly crafted movies.” -- RottenTomatoes.com

April 6
(1987) - PG-13 - 130 min

Matewan

A labor leader seeking to organize the workers of a company town sets off a powderkeg of racial hostility, corruption & betrayal in a bitter clash between unionist miners & coal company.

April 20
(1989) - PG-13 - 126 min

Fat Man & Little Boy

Drama about the people involved in the development of the atomic bomb during World War II

January 26
(1986) - PG - 125 min

The Mission

Two Jesuit missionaries defied the colonial forces of Spain and Portugal to save an Indian tribe from slavery in mid-18th-century South America.

February 16
(2003) - Not Rated - 114 min

Jasper, Texas

Explores the aftermath of one of the most horrifying crimes in recent American history. In 1998, the small town of Jasper, Texas, was witness to the brutal murder of James Byrd, Jr.

February 23
(1943) - Not Rated - 75 min

The Ox-Bow Incident

Two cowboys attempt to quell a lynch mob’s thirst for revenge when the mob believes a cattleman has been murdered by rustlers.

March 9
(1962) - Not Rated - 139 min

Advise and Consent

Political thriller examines the dark side of politics and its tragic personal repercussions for an essentially decent man.

March 23
(2005) - Not Rated - 117 min

Sophie Scholl: The Final Days

In 1943, one young woman stood up to the Nazis. Her courage made her a legend. -- imdb.com

April 13
(1958) - Not Rated - 120 min

I Want to Live!

Oscar winning performance in this true crime story of Barbara Graham, the first woman executed in California.

May 4
(2004) - PG-13 - 136 min

The Alamo

“This is the best Alamo movie ever -- the most accurate, the best-acted, the most sumptuously mounted.”

Robert W. Butler, KANSAS CITY STAR