The 2025 Conscious Collaborations Mental Health Conference will focus on Child/Adolescent Mental Health, Integrative Approaches, Collaboration, and Burnout Prevention.

The Conference will be held at American Bank Center on May 16, 2025 from 8:00am until 5:00pm and will feature keynote speaker Dr. Emeran Mayer, (4) educational sessions, including general sessions and breakout sessions. There will be a yoga session, breakfast, luncheon, exhibitor hall, a collaboration social hour, and multiple wellness activities.

The Conscious Collaborations Mental Health Conference is a partnership between Family Counseling Service and the Celeix Digital team. Recognizing that the forefront to improving the mental health landscape in our community requires a conscious collaborative mindset across sectors, our vision is to bridge the gap between mental health and accessibility through collaborative partnerships and through the development of technological solutions.
